LCP CLEANS UP AT THE TOC

5th Edition

Young, Leggett, and Tolbert bring home first place

The LCP Wrestling Club went to San Antonio this last weekend and had success on several levels. From a wins and loses standpoint the club racked up 17 wins and collected three first places from Caden Leggett, Thomas Tolbert, and Tyler Young.

The tournament had a rough start for LCP due to a bracketing glitch. To help resolve this issue Coach Dale Harrison was required to spend time at the Head Table and was unable to coach the first half of the tournament. Luckily for the team Ray Lensing, Cody Coleman, Matt Tolbert, Christopher Lynch, and Tyler Young stepped in to fill the void until Dale was freed up.

Also at the Tournament of Champions Will Spencer began his season after only two practices. Things got off to a rocky start for Will as he had a bloody nose in the first period of his first match. Will's contest abruptly ended when he was bitten by his opponent. Although very rare for a wrestler to get bitten, many people believe Will just brings that out in people.

Kyle Tibbetts was unable to overcome poor coaching(Uncle/

Newby notches a win:

Oklahoma native Cole Newby captured 3rd Place on Saturday at the San Antonio Tournament of Champions. Although unconfirmed, it is believed Cole was the only person with Norman, Oklahoma Roots that had success this weekend.

HILL COUNTRY CLASSIC AND SCRIMMAGE

This week there is something for Rookies, Novices, and Open wrestlers alike and all within close driving distance.

On Friday 3F Fitness will be holding a scrimmage for Rookie/Novice wrestlers that want to get some Mat time and then get on with their weekend. 3F is located not too far from the Oasis and on a Friday? Man how could you not make a night out of it?

Also the Hill Country Classic Open takes place on Saturday at Henry MS. Sign ups for both are on the website.

Gary Lensing was unable to compete on Saturday because of a stomach ailment. Might have been something he ate, but no one can be sure.

newsletter editor) in his one loss of the day, a triple overtime war. After his loss, Kyle was able to regroup and chalk up two more wins to capture 3rd place in his division

After starting the season 0-2 in Lubbock last weekend, Lance Reed won two matches before coming up short in the Championship match against teammate Caden Leggett. For Lance, getting some victories means that the talk around the house of him being sent to military school will subside,... for now.

Quincy Lynch came to San Antonio to wrestle in some Rookie/Novice 'pick up' matches. Quincy and his family spent his whole day waiting for his second match. When the time came he was ready and chalked the first win of his career! College scouts have already begun to enquire about the phenom.

Cole Newby collected third place but forgot to pick up his medal as he was in a rush to get home to watch a football game. I'll stop right there.

Gage Leggett had his first competition of the year and captured second place in the 85 pound weight class. Gage's only loss of the day was to fellow "LCPian" Thomas "The Barbwire Machine" Tolbert.

Connor Coleman had a big win in the 80 pound class along with two other well wrestled matches. D3 80 is one of the toughest divisions in Texas this year.

Gabe Lensing came and wrestled two tough matches but his brother Gary had a stomach ailment that prevented him from competing. Once again thanks to their father for pitching in.

"Tyler! Get out of the Circle of Tranquility! You're making everyone mad,... again!"

LCP Wrestlers stretch out before a busy meet Saturday.

Special thanks go out to our parents who stepped up worked Table 2. Amie Leggett, Cody Coleman, Barbie Tibbetts, Bryan Newby, and Nancy Reed all spent time working a table to make sure the tournament progressed. Missing from the list is Patrick Reed who spent the day as he put it "Looking Coach-like." The effort by our table-working parents was so inspiring that the Central Region is financing a major motion picture based on their exploits. Look at the poster on the final page of the newsletter.

Great job everyone! This week we have a R/N scrimmage at 3f on the 9th and the Hill Country Classic for Open wrestlers on the 10th. Both of these events can be signed up for on the teams website.

Thank you LCP Parents

IN NON-WRESTLING MATTERS

(as if there could be...)

NCAA wrestling powerhouses Oklahoma University and Oklahoma State University took a break from folkstyle season to play a football game. The game was televised nationally with the #3 OSU Cowboys defeating #10 Oklahoma Sooners 44-10. At the conclusion of the game LCP parent and OSU Alum

Brent Geiger took his son John and John's friends Lance Reed and Kyle Tibbetts to the house of fellow LCP family and Sooner fans, the Newby's with the intent to drop off conciliatory refreshments and reminisce over a well played game by both teams. Both Bryan and Cole Newby sensed sarcasm and in typical Oklahoma fashion Bryan answered the door with shotgun in hand.

Cold comfort for the Newby's is that OSU will not be playing for the National Championship as they remained #3 in the BCS Rankings. The rest of the LCP Nation will now be subjected to years of the Geiger men stating things like, "OSU would have been National Champs if the BCS didn't"

Bryan Newby sports his "Norman Security System."
Geiger, Reed, and Tibbetts give Bryan and Cole a hard time.
