

December 19, 2011

LCP WRESTLING

Reminder
no practice this week. Please
spend your free
time working on singles

LCP SENDS FIVE WRESTLERS TO EL PASO

All five come back with medals!

The second stage of the Texas Ironman Series was held in El Paso this weekend at the Edge of Texas Nationals. The LCP Wrestling Club sent five wrestlers to this very tough tournament that attracted wrestlers from New Mexico, Colorado, Oklahoma and Texas. All five of our wrestlers placed and brought home medals!

Tyler Young continued his domination of the "Ghost Town Division of Texas youth wrestling" D4 Heavyweight. Young wrestled three matches pinning each opponent. Tyler hopes to spend the holiday doing something where there are more people to compete against like competitive eating against runway fashion models (You see runway models have a reputation for being on diets and Tyler competing against them in an eating contest pokes fun at there being no competition for him,... I'm telling you the joke works!).

Will Spencer came back from the disappointment of finding out that road production of Wicked was coming to El Paso the following week and fought his way to 2nd Place in the D4 130 pound division. This appeared to be a watershed moment for Will as this was the first time this season that he wrestled a Tournament nose bleed free. The coaching staff agreed that the lack of

7th Edition

Sigh,... Sitting on Santa's lap:
My hand to God, Tyler said, "Can I wear the Santa hat and beard and have Will sit on my lap?"

I guess Santa is going sleeveless to show off his guns this year?

TRAINING ALONE: STARRING JOHN GEIGER

Things did not get off to a great start for LCP as John Geiger had weight concerns. Parent of the Year candidate, Brent Geiger agreed with John that it would be a great idea for John to jog the last mile to the charter bus that was waiting at Vista Ridge High School.

As coaches and athletes began to load the bus, there was still no sign of John. Moments after Brent went looking for him a State Trooper pulled up letting John (playing the role of abandon child) out of the cruiser.

The Cedar Park District Attorney is currently trying to decide if they are going pursue a case against Brent. We'd like to ask everyone from LCP Wrestling Club to be available should Brent need any character witnesses.

nose bleed was most likely due to no one knowing Will like we all know Will.

Despite having a rather harrowing weight loss episode that involved law enforcement (see Training Alone: Starring John Geiger) John Geiger captured third place in a very competitive D3 70 Pound Division.

After an 0-2 showing at the Panhandle Nationals Lance Reed went through weeks of being called, "Daddy's Little Girl" and being asked if he had planned to try out for the Silver Star Steppers when he started Middle School. All of that was put to rest as Lance placed 6th with three wins at the D3 90 Pound division.

Kyle Tibbetts strained his neck in first match of the day and quit complaining after none of the coaching staff believed him and thought he was being a wuss.

The Novice continued to wrestle three more matches capturing sixth place.

It was not until Sunday at McDonalds in Cedar Park that Kyle's Grandmother asked coach Patrick, "Did you know Kyle hurt his neck and has a big lump there?"

Coach Reed's response was something to the effect, "Uhh he talked about it after his first match but never brought it up again. He acted like was fine. I wasn't the only coach there you know!"

Great job to all five of our wrestlers placing at a very tough tournament! See more from our trip to El Paso in: Just like Lubbock (but two hours longer).

Perp Walk:

Brent Geiger was released pending further investigation.

Goofing off in Van Horn, Texas.

The man in the upper left corner is none to amused. Not the man you want upset at you guys.

Placers at the Edge of Texas

Tyler Young 1st Place
Will Spencer 2nd Place
John Geiger 3rd Place

Lance Reed 6th Place
Kyle Tibbetts 6th Place

John and Brent allowed to visit after a brush with the law But only if John wears a disguise.

Kyle and Lance sit with an incredibly handsome coach Having a post-tournament dinner at Peter Pan Pizza in El Paso, not as bad as that just sounded.

LCP CAPTURES 17 WINS AT REINDEER BRAWL.

The Leggett boys pitch a shutout!

The Rookie/Novice contingent of the LCP Wrestling Club went to the Reindeer Brawl this weekend and posted some more great results.

Among the highlights was the coaching prowess of grizzled veteran wrestler Gage Leggett who coached his brothers to a perfect 7-0. Caden Leggett went 2-0 to win the D3 95 Pound Weight Class while Landry steamrolled through the competition win all four matches at Tot 56.

Also catching the coaches eye was a match in which Jack Hood landed the Barbwire en route to a pin and third place. Great job Jack, but unless you obtained prior written permission from Thomas Tolbert Enterprises™, "The Barbwire People" this will most likely end up in civil litigation.

To the right is a list of placers for the Reindeer Rumble, if your wrestler placed and is not listed please let me know and we will update the newsletter so that it is preserved correctly before it gets sent to the archives which reside in a vault in Zurich.

Quincy Lynch Covers a Viper Talented rookie and skilled orator did some great wrestling on Saturday

Placers at the Reindeer Brawl

Caden Leggett 1st Place
 Landry Leggett 1st Place
 Jack McLaughlin 1st Place
 Bryce McLaren 2nd Place
 Quincy Lynch 4th Place
 Jack Hood 3rd Place

Caden covers his opponent for the pin!

Leggett collected two wins on Saturday with his brother Gage helping coach, Caden did not comment if that was actually an advantage or hinderance.

MCLAREN / MCLAUGHLIN II = MCAWESOME!

The Re-Match lives up to the hype.

At the conclusion of MVM I which ended in overtime, all those in attendance knew one thing: "This ain't over, not by a site..." It was such a big deal that all those in attendance agreed to use improper english to get their point across.

After several training montages and moments of truth about what they are really doing this for, both wrestlers were ready to go at it once again.

On Saturday at the Reindeer Brawl these two LCP Rookie Standouts faced off again in a thriller. Once again Jack McLaughlin came out on top winning in 9-7 in triple overtime. Dude, I seriously need to see one of these matches. Yes, there will be another one, because I think I speak for everyone when I say,"This ain't over!"

In preparation for MVMIII Bryce will be training in a remote monastery in Nepal trying to learn the fighting tactics of the sherpa people who battle the Yeti year round.

Meanwhile Jack will be headed to Cambridge Massachusetts to work with the scientists at MIT to use cutting edge technology to his advantage.

2011

Just like Lubbock
but two hours longer

STAYS
IN
THE
OFFICE
TO GET
THE

Mostly alert and smiling faces
Also a straight necked Kyle. Yeah the trip must have just begun.

Bus arrives at 9:55 and the pool
close at 10:00
Just enough time.

Will gets ready to punch Tyler
Pretty much the nicest they were to each other the whole trip.

(Left)I saw this on Gangland

Okay, I'm not a 100% sure but I think the moment I took this picture the boys became members of MS-13. Sorry about that. http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Mara_Salvatrucha

(Right)Cavalryman Statue

This statue is historically significant as it is on the way to the El Paso Convention Center from the Doubletree Hotel

(Above)Desk Manager Photo Bombs the picture
As Tyler says, "Buddy the Elf what's your favorite color?" Too Cool for school Will arrogantly drinks his Starbucks. Does Kyle's neck look crooked to you?

(Left) "Chief Tyler Wrangler" stops for a picture

Glen Young takes a moment to pose for a picture with his son and Lance. As soon as the camera is put away Glen gives a demonstration of the "Double Backhand"

20 HOURS ON A BUS, WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO?

WATCH MOVIES

- Kung Fu Panda 2
- Zoo Keeper
- Rush Hour 2
- Legendary
- Grown Ups
- Win/Win
- Super 8

PIT WILL & TY AGAINST EACH OTHER

- We were pleasantly surprised to find out that Tyler and Will would just about fight to the death for Gummi Bears. This provided us hours of enjoyment.

(Right) The trip is done!

The five LCP medalists along with two kids from Fort Hood. A great Tournament for the Central Region. Meanwhile Kyle cranes his neck.

(Above) You can actually see it... Will Spencer's IQ actually drops as he sleeps with the OSU blanket on him.

