LCP WRESTLING

Our newsletter loaded with sarcasm, please have fun with it.

LCP WRESTLING IS BACK!

Vol. 2 Issue 1

Wrestlers get an early start to what promises to be an exciting season

The temperature has changed from hot to only sort of hot and that can mean only one thing. Counting down the days until Dale Harrison says, "I left Canada because of crappy weather like this, why is it in Texas now?!" Oh, speaking of which, if you haven't selected a date in the When is Dale Going to Have His Winter Melt Down - Pool please try to do so by Friday. Brent is keeping track of everyone's picks and says there are still some good slots left.

So besides Dale, the cooler air means that wrestling season is back!

With a steady coaching core and some key additions, this promises to be an exciting year.

The club will continue with Monday and Thursday practices with Tuesday being by invitation only. All practices begin at 6PM until High School season starts when the start will be moved to a later time.

If you would like your wrestler to attend the Tuesday practice, please talk to coach Dale about the requirements.

Leggett covers for a pin

During the off-season Coach Darren decided he had taken the, "Creepy Van Driving Guy" look as far as he could and got a haircut. Selling out to the man.

WRESTLERS USE SUMMER TUNEUP AS EXCUSE TO GO TO SCHLITTERBAHN

Several LCP wrestlers took some time this Summer to keep their skills sharp at the New Braunfels Scrimmage. Five dollars gets you some matches and two plus hours of, "Can we go Schlitterbahn when we this is done?"

"No way he did his left shoe first!"

Bored wrestlers in New Braunfels wait anxiously for Thomas Tolbert to put on his shoes.

Post scrimmage lunch.

The kids are unamused, "I don't see a water-slide!"

A Baby White Buffalo Sighting!!

Former LCP Wrestler, Chris Giddens seizes on the opportunity to beat up on a Gerraci.

Wait for it...

"Jordan, you're doing the half all wrong. Let me show you how to do the half the right way. Greer can you help for a sec?"

Snap in the half baby!!

Giddens uses Greer to show Jordan Lynch how to land a half-nelson,...repeatedly. All parties agreed Giddens was having far too much fun.

Dale points at kids for John to attack in his blind fury.
